

NCIC CTG Committee on Economic Analysis

Terms of Reference for Disease Site Committee Liaisons to the Committee on Economic Analysis

The following are the terms of reference of the liaison position:

- Inform the Committee of concepts for new trials that are being developed within the Disease Site.
- In collaboration with the members of the Committee on Economic Analysis, understand and apply the criteria for selecting a trial for an economic evaluation.
- Develop a knowledge of economic analysis and contribute along with the Committee to the implementation of economic analysis within protocols in their Disease Site.
- Inform the Committee of economic analysis of trials in that Disease Site being conducted by other investigators/groups.
- Update members of their Disease Site on developments in economic analysis.
- Contribute to the planning of education sessions for the NCIC CTG.

The Disease Site Committee Representatives will meet at the Spring and Fall Meetings with the Committee, and will communicate during the year with members of the Committee as necessary.

Term of Membership: Three years (renewable)