

Objectives:

To understand the nature of biobanks, their governance, and required operating procedures

To understand and find solutions for problems encountered in tumour banking associated with Clinical Trials.