Downie's Cancer Treatment the Result of a CCTG Trial
Submitted by shawn on Thu, 07/14/2016 - 15:18  Thursday, July 14, 2016

Dr. Chris O'Callaghan Senior Investigator at Canadian Cancer Trials Group explaining glioblastoma cancer and new cancer research.
Watch Video

Researcher welcomes spotlight on cancer.
Read Article

No miracle cure for cancer suffered by Gord Downie, but research offers hope.
Read Article

This Kingston-based group helped discover a brain cancer treatment 15 years ago that will be used to treat Gord Downie today and prolong his life.
Watch Video

Dr. Chris O'Callaghan, at the Canadian Cancer Trials Group in Kingston on Tuesday, is a senior investigator in a new trial that produced effective results in improving the longevity and quality of life of patients with glioblastoma, an incurable brain cancer.