10. What meetings can I attend?

Anyone can attend OPEN meetings at the Spring Meeting. Closed meetings are restricted to relevant committee members or by way of invitation from the Committee Chair(s). All meetings on the Overall Schedule of Events are marked as either "OPEN" or "CLOSED."

11. Where can I view individual Meeting Agendas?

Agendas for all OPEN meetings are linked to the online Overall Meeting Schedule as they become available. You can find the Overall Meeting Schedule on the Spring Meeting website under "2016 Spring Meeting Registration and Information." Please print and bring the agendas for the meetings you are interested in attending. We will have limited copies of OPEN meeting agendas available onsite at the Chelsea Hotel.

Agendas for CLOSED meetings are not linked to the Overall Meeting Schedule.

12. Who can claim Continuing Medical Education (CME) Credits?

Meetings are accredited by our Continuing Professional Development (CPD) provider, Queen's University, as an educational event under Section 1 of the Maintenance of Competence (MOC) Program with the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Any participants wishing to claim CME credits for attendance at Spring Meeting may do so.

13. How do I claim CME credits?

Participants wanting to claim credits must use our CME Evaluation Program available on the Spring Meeting website. You will be asked to evaluate the accredited meeting(s) attended, indicate the number of hours attended, and answer some general questions. Upon completion, you will be able to print your certificate. This certificate will be accepted by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, but we cannot guarantee the certificate will be accepted by other associations or groups (e.g. CRAs [SoCRA] or Pharmacists).

14. Is there a deadline to get my CME certificate?

Yes, you must claim your CME credits no later than May 18, 2016.
