

Annual Spring Meeting of Participants

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the Canadian Cancer Trials Group (CCTG) Annual Spring Meeting of Participants?

The Annual Spring Meeting of Participants is a working meeting of committees designed to bring together as many CCTG participants as possible to discuss the progress of ongoing trials and to plan new trials.

2. Who can attend the Annual Spring Meeting of Participants?

The Annual Spring Meeting of Participants is a closed meeting. You must meet the eligible criteria to attend. Please visit our Spring Meeting website to view our Registration Policy.

3. How much are the registration fees?

There is no registration fee to attend, but you must be eligible.

4. I'm eligible to attend the meeting. How do I receive an e- Invitation?

There are 3 different categories to receive/request an e-Invitation:

- a) An e-invitation was sent to you based on your role as a CCTG committee/trial member;
- b) You can request an e-Invitation if you have a CCTG userid and password; or,
- c) You can request an e-Invitation as a Guest.

Please visit our Spring Meeting website to view Spring Meeting Registration and Information and to request an e-Invitation.

5. If you should have received an e-Invitation based on your role as a CCTG committee/trial member or have requested one but have not received it. Please look at the following before contacting us.

- Check your spam/junk folder, e-invitations are sent by email from meetings@ctg.queensu.ca.
- Check our invitation policy to see if you are eligible for an automated e-invitation.
- If you need your e-invitation resent to you please visit our website, look under the 'How to Register' tab.

6. What is a PIN#?

A PIN# is your Personal Identification Number that is sent to you in your e-Invitation to register for the Spring Meeting.

7. How do I register more than one person?

You cannot register multiple attendees. When you receive your e-Invitation, it will include your Personal Identification Number (PIN#) so that you can register. Each PIN# is specific to the registrant and linked to your Confidentiality Agreement (Undertaking).

8. When does online registration close?

Online registration closes Friday, April 21. It is highly recommended that you register online to avoid line ups and to receive your pre-printed name tag at the onsite Registration Desk.

9. Online registration is now closed; can I still attend the meeting?

If you are eligible to attend the Spring Meeting, you can register onsite at our Registration Desk at the Chelsea Hotel.

10. Where is CCTG's onsite Registration and what are the hours?

CCTG's Registration desk is located on the 2nd floor, Churchill Court. Hours of operation are:

- Thursday, April 27: 6:30 AM-6:30 PM
- Friday, April 28: 7:00 AM-6:00 PM
- Saturday, April 29: 6:30 AM-6:00 PM
- Sunday April 30: 7:00 AM-2:00 PM

11. What meetings can I attend?

Anyone can attend OPEN meetings at the Spring Meeting. Closed meetings are restricted to relevant committee members or by way of invitation from the Committee Chair(s). All meetings on the Overall Schedule of Events are marked as either "OPEN" or "CLOSED."

12. If I have received a mandated Full-Funded invitation (based on my role as a committee member) and I cannot attend Spring Meeting, can someone else attend in my place?

NO. Full-Funded invitations for committee members (e.g. Breast Disease Site Committee Executive member) are specific to that person's role on the committee; therefore, substituting another person to fill this role is NOT permitted (i.e. the original Full-Funded invitation is NON-TRANSFERABLE).

13. Where can I view individual Meeting Agendas?

Agendas for all OPEN meetings are linked to the online Overall Meeting Schedule as they become available. You can find the Overall Meeting Schedule on the Spring Meeting website under "2017 Spring Meeting Registration and Information." Please print and bring the agendas for the meetings you are interested in attending. We will have limited copies of OPEN meeting agendas available onsite at the Chelsea Hotel.

Agendas for CLOSED meetings are not linked to the Overall Meeting Schedule.

14. Who can claim Continuing Medical Education (CME) Credits?

Meetings are accredited by our Continuing Professional Development (CPD) provider, Queen's University, as an educational event under Section 1 of the Maintenance of Competence (MOC) Program with the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Any participants wishing to claim CME credits for attendance at Spring Meeting may do so.

15. How do I claim CME credits?

Participants wanting to claim credits must use our CME Evaluation Program available on the Spring Meeting website. You will be asked to evaluate the accredited meeting(s) attended, indicate the number of hours attended, and answer some general questions. Upon completion, you will be able to print your certificate. This certificate will be accepted by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, but we cannot guarantee the certificate will be accepted by other associations or groups (e.g. CRAs [SoCRA] or Pharmacists).

16. Is there a deadline to get my CME certificate?

Yes, you must claim your CME credits no later than May 19, 2017.
